

OREGON PARK OWNERS ALLIANCE

CODE OF ETHICS

As a Member of the Oregon Park Owners Alliance, (“OPOA”), I subscribe to the principles set forth in the following Code of Ethics established by the OPOA:

Members agree to engage in conduct and actions that promote and enhance the public image of manufactured housing and land lease manufactured housing communities.

Members agree to promote positive customer and resident relations as an essential responsibility.

Members agree to engage in conduct that respects the interests of customers, residents, vendors, and the general public regarding the manufactured housing industry and manufactured housing community lifestyle.

Members agree to conduct themselves in a professional, courteous, and considerate manner in communications and interaction with other members, residents, vendors, and the general public.

Members agree to adhere to applicable state and federal laws and regulations affecting the manufactured housing industry.

Members agree to be bound by this OPOA Code of Ethics as a condition of membership.

If it is determined that a Member is not acting in accordance to this OPOA Code of Ethics, a Member may be expelled from OPOA.
